THE COUNTY

Located in the heart of California’s fertile Central Valley, Stanislaus County is blessed with mild weather year round and some of the world’s richest soil. With a population of nearly 525,000, Stanislaus County is proud of its vibrant citizenry, great traditions, educational opportunities, and multicultural lifestyles. The area offers a mixture of urban, suburban, and rural environments and lifestyles. The economy is based primarily on agricultural production and related services, food processing and retail. California State University Stanislaus and Modesto Junior College are higher educational institutions located in the County.

The area offers a variety of cultural events including the Gallo Center of Performing Arts and a Minor League baseball team. We are centrally located, with the San Francisco Bay Area, Silicon Valley, Sacramento and California’s Central Coast only a 90 minute drive from Modesto. To the East are the foothills of the Mother Lode country which lead to the majestic Sierra Nevada mountain range, Yosemite National Park and Lake Tahoe.

THE DEPARTMENT

Stanislaus County Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) provides a broad range of support services to its customers including establishment of paternity; establishment, enforcement, and modification of child support orders; location of absent parents; and collection of support orders. Through its 161 agency employees, Stanislaus County DCSS partners with government agencies and numerous community based organizations to help families become self sufficient. As an award winning agency, Stanislaus County DCSS focuses on continuous improvement through enhanced customer service and technological innovation.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The Assistant Director reports to the Director of Child Support Services. The Assistant Director manages the overall administration of the Department including program performance, fiscal, human resource, and information technology services.
